S. S. STEWART'S BANJO AND GUITAR JOURNAL

The Best and Cheapest Musical Paper in Existence.

PUBLISHED EVERY TWO MONTHS—SIX TIMES PER YEAR—PRICE TEN CENTS PER NUMBER, OR FIFTY CENTS PER YEAR—FOR THE SIX NUMBERS.

Fifty cents, only, is the price of one year's subscription, and every subscriber gets a good book without extra charge.

WHERE CAN YOU GET MORE FOR YOUR MONEY?

☞No clocks, watches, piano-stools, bicycles, second-hand clothing, or railroad excursions, are offered at this price; neither do we offer balloon excursions or brown-stone houses. These articles, if wanted, must be looked for elsewhere. Please make a note of this before sending in your subscription; as much correspondence requires some little time, and "time is money." Please remember:—No Stone or Brick Houses will be given away to subscribers at this office. Read the following and be quite sure that you know what you are sending for before you write. Do not expect to receive fifty-two numbers of the Journal, and three or four premium books, all for half a dollar.

INDIVIDUAL PREMIUM LIST.

Every subscriber sending Fifty Cents for one year's subscription to S. S. Stewart's Banjo and Guitar Journal, may take choice of any one of the following named books, which will be mailed free of extra charge, with the first number of the Journal. This fifty cents will pay for the six numbers of Journal published during the year, and also for the premium book. Postage will be paid by the publisher.

"THE BANJO AND GUITAR MUSIC ALBUM,"
A Book full of Banjo and Guitar Music.

"THE GUITARIST'S DELIGHT,"
A Book of Instrumental Guitar Music.

"RUDIMENTAL LESSONS FOR THE BANJO,"
A Small Book of Lessons for Young Pupils, Useful for Pupil and Teacher.

Either of the three above named books will be given free to any subscriber sending fifty cents for one subscription. Or, if preferred, Stewart's Chart of the Banjo Fingerboard, very useful to students of the Banjo, will be given in place of the above. This chart is known as "The Banjoist's Assistant, or Note Reading made easy."

The above constitutes the sum and substance of our FIFTY CENT SUBSCRIPTION DEPARTMENT. Those who can stand twenty-five cents more, and prefer to possess a neat and useful volume for their library table, or elsewhere, may release all claim to any one of the aforesaid books, and may have in its place, our book, "THE BANJO," as a premium. This will cost 75 cents in place of 50 cents. Please remember this.

Of course, twenty-five cents is a quarter of a dollar; but there are, we know, a few wealthy aristocrats among our readers who do not mind spending a little money. Be careful to write name and full address very plainly when sending in subscription. Do not forget that there is some difference between a *sub*scription and a *pre*scription. We are sorry to have to say such a thing here, but it sometimes happens that letters are received which so closely resemble the latter in chirography, that our clerks are puzzled to know how to decipher them.

Remit by P. O. Money Order, U. S. Postal Note, Bank Draft, or Express Money Order. One or two cent U. S. Postage Stamps, in good condition, will be received as money, if more convenient to the subscriber.

☞REMEMBER—NO GOLD MINES OR BUILDING LOTS ARE OFFERED AS PREMIUMS
